The Prompt Formula

Copy this structure every time

1

Context

"I'm reaching out to [role] at [company type]..."

2

Intelligence

"Here's what I learned: [Winner Hypothesis insights]..."

3

Constraint

"Write 3 lines max, no buzzwords, reference specifics..."

4

The Difference

AI Slop

"Hope this email finds you well! I wanted to reach out because I noticed your company is growing and thought you might be interested in our innovative solution..."

Generic opener

No specific research

Instant delete

Strategic AI

"Saw your post about the Q3 hiring surge—adding 40 SDRs in 90 days is aggressive. When we helped [similar company] scale that fast, their biggest bottleneck was..."

What Smart Sellers Track

Reply Rate

By message type, subject line,
and persona

Positive vs Negative

"Let's talk" vs "Please stop emailing"

Meeting Rate

Replies that become actual conversations

Simple spreadsheet. 5 minutes/week. Compound results.

The Sellers Who Learn Fastest

The goal: Find your 2-3 "always work" messages

Test ONE variable at a time

Subject line OR opener OR CTA — never all three

Wait for statistical significance

At least 50 sends before drawing conclusions

Double down on winners

Once you find what works, scale it before testing more
